FIREMEN KEPT BUSY

Four Fires Occur Simultaneously at Philadelphia.

LOSS OF $200,000 ENTAILED

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 7.—Four fires in this city Thursday, all burning at the same time, caused a damage estimated at $200,000. The first fire which caused a loss of $5,000, started on the freight steamship Aries of the Merchants and Miners' Transportation company, lying at Pine street wharf, Delaware river.

Before the flames on the steamer were extinguished some of the first companies were summoned to the big drug store of Jacobs Bros., in Chestnut street, west of Tenth street, which was damaged $75,000. The Macey furniture company, adjoining, suffered $10,000 damage.

The third fire occurred at American and Locust streets, where a large three-story building occupied by publishing firms, was completely burned out.

While firemen were battling with the flames at the other three places, a fourth fire started at Marshall and Ritten streets, in a dwelling occupied by Frank Bauer, his wife and four children. Three other buildings were damaged and in all twenty persons were driven from the houses.

HARD TASK FOR THIS MAN.

Chicagoan Would Regulate the Hours of Women Shoppers.

Chicago, Feb. 7.—One man in Chicago has taken upon his shoulders a huge task. It is involved in this proposition:

Women shoppers should buy early and get out of the shopping district before 5 p. m. Then, the working girl and the toiling man could get seats in the street cars.

The brave man who proposes this idea is S. B. Mills, a member of the real estate board. At the board's meeting Wednesday he broached the matter.

"I have made a study of this situation for many years," said Mr. Mills. "Night after night, I have watched the lazy women with their sprawling bundles march into the cars and take up half the seats. If a working girl, who has been worn to a thread by waiting on them all day, manages to get a seat, its a miracle.

"If a laboring man, tired with his day's work, doesn't rise to give them his seat, supposed by chance he happens to have one, he is immediately regarded as a dolt and an idiot.

"These women ought to be driven out of the district before the stores close. Let us try moral suasion and coaxing and see if we can move their selfish hearts and solve one of the great features of the transportation problem. The ministers ought to preach on this subject."

Blind Man in Coroner's Race.

Atlanta, Feb. 7.—G. Paul Donehoo, of West End, a man who is totally blind, has announced that he would make the race for coroner of Fulton county. In spite of the fact that he is unable to see, Mr. Donehoo says he is capable of holding the position with as much satisfaction as any man who ever held it before.

Judge Chilton May Run.

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 7.—Friends of Judge J. M. Chilton, of Montgomery, are urging him to make the race for the supreme court bench, and it is expected he will announce in a few days. His father was a member of the Alabama supreme court.

Machine Shops Burned.

Johnson City, Tenn., Feb. 6.—The machine shops of the South and Western railroad at Carnegie were burned Tuesday entailing a loss of about $40,000. Aside from the machinery, two passenger coaches and a number of cars were burned.

TRANQUILITY IN PORTUGAL.

Intention of New Cabinet Has Had Soothing Effect Upon Country.

Lisbon, Feb. 7.—The announced intention of the new cabinet to put an end to repression and restore the old liberal monarchy, which has existed in Portugal for sixty years, has had a soothing effect on the country. Tranquility is reported from everywhere in the interior, and Lisbon, basking in the brilliant sunshine, seems perfectly peaceful.

Troops are less conspicuous on the streets of the city, and if the day of the funerals passes without incident, the present phase of the crisis through which the country is passing may be regarded as at an end.

Intense interest is shown in Franco's whereabouts, as the drama centers about him, but he remains in seclusion, seemingly crushed in spirit. His elimination is regretted by the commercial classes and foreign elements, which are convinced that his sole object was the good of the country.

The young king himself believed in Franco. The day after the tragedy, while unbosoming himself to a lifelong friend, he said:

"I intend to retain Franco. He was my father's friend and shall be mine."

It is well known, however, that the dowager queen has always been hostile to the former premier and latterly Queen Amelie shared the view that the dictatorship had been carried too far.

DOG'S LONG JOURNEY.

San Francisco, Feb. 7.—The instinct of dogs, which often leads them long distances to their original homes has again been instanced in Oakland. Sent to the western part of Montreal, a greyhound appeared at its old home in Oakland, much to the surprise of Michael Ryan, its former owner.

Wednesday a traveled stained and weary greyhound appeared at the kennels. Ryan went to drive it away, but on seeing him the dog gave an eager bark and leaped up to welcome him.

Ryan recognized the greyhound which had traveled more than fifteen hundred miles and guided by animal instinct had again reached its old home and master.

MOONSHINERS BUSY.

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 7.—Prohibition seems to have made the business of the moonshiner to blossom as the rose. Knox Booth, revenue agent, who is just back from raids in Florida, says:

"I have information of more illicit distilleries than there are men to raid them in the states of Alabama, Mississippi, Florida and Georgia."

In a recent trip to Florida nine raids were made, half a dozen plants destroyed, six men caught and warrants issued for ten more. The impression is becoming general that with the putting out of whisky in the towns and cities the manufacture in the hill counties will pick up.

Filipinos Seated in Congress.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Representation in the house of representatives was increased Wednesday when Benito LeGarda and Pablo Ocampo, resident Philippine commissioners, took their seats. They were conducted to the capitol by Secretary Taft, and for some time before the house met held an impromptu reception in the speaker's room. Their entry into the chamber was signalized by applause, in response to which they bowed their acknowledgements.

To Quit Association.

Tuscaloosa, Ala., Feb. 7.—At the regular monthly meeting of the faculty of the University of Alabama, held Feb. 4, the following resolution was carried by an overwhelming majority: Resolved, That the University of Alabama withdraw from the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic association at the next regular meeting of said association in December, 1908.

HORSE IS MISSING

Ice, Shipping and Banking King Disappears.

HE WAS HEAVILY INVOLVED

Suits and Judgments for Large Sums Have Been Entered Against the Banker—It Is Though He May Have Gone to Europe.

New York, Feb. 7.—Search was continued for Charles W. Morse, formerly of Bath, Me., the banker, promoter and organizer of the American Ice company, and the $120,000,000 consolidated steamship company. Mr. Morse was not at his handsome home at 712 Fifth avenue, this city, Wednesday, and he is not known to have been in the city since Monday, and may have left town earlier.

With a judgment for $155,753 against him; a suit for $243,321 brought against him by the receiver of the National Bank of North America; his home mortgaged and in addition attached to cover the amount sued for; his accounts in several New York banks attached; his Consolidated Steamship company in the hands of receivers; his holdings of bank stock greatly depreciated and two grand juries investigating his relations with the banks, he faced a condition which might have appalled any man.

National Bank Examiner Charles A. Hanna, who is in charge of the National Bank of North America, and who brought suit against Morse for $243,321, announced he was informed that Mr. Morse had probably gone to Europe or had disappeared elsewhere for an indefinite period; but Mr. Hanna was unable to determine when and by what steamer Mr. Morse sailed.

Albert B. Boardman, attorney for Morse, was quoted as saying that Morse sailed for Europe Saturday on the steamer Campania, that he would be absent three weeks for a rest, and that he did not anticipate such a crisis in his affairs as has arisen.

Alfred Heath, formerly Mr. Morse's secretary, said that he had not seen Mr. Morse since last week.

So far as could be learned, Morse was not a passenger on any of the steamships which sailed from this port this week. It would have been possible, however, for him to have made arrangements through a friend and to have sailed without his name appearing on the company's books.

The action brought by National Bank Examiner Hanna for $243,321, was to recover the amount of loans alleged to have been made by the National Bank of North America last fall as security for which Mr. Morse gave his notes to the bank. The bank went into the hands of a receiver two weeks ago.

R. A. C. Smith secured a judgment for $155,735 against Morse to cover the value of 500 shares of bank stock which Morse had sold to Mr. Smith with the agreement that he would pay $150,000 for it whenever Mr. Smith wanted to return it.

Since Mr. Morse's elimination from the New York banking situation he has transacted the most of his business at his Fifth avenue residence. Within the past ten days he has been before the county grand jury several times to testify concerning certain assets of the Provident Savings Life Assurance Society which were deposited with banks with which he was connected. The federal grand jury also has been investigating the conduct of those banks.

That Mr. Morse was greatly disturbed by the various moves against him, is indicated by the statement of Thomas E. Wing, attorney for the receiver of the National Bank of North America, who made affidavit that Mr. Morse said to him, with great agitation, that he had watched his securities drop far below par and had kept almost all of his accounts margined and good, but that he could not stand it forever, and did not know what he would do.

Prior to the collapse of the various enterprises in which he was engaged, Mr. Morse's fortune was estimated as high as $20,000,000.

EXPLOSION WRECKS PLANT.

Rome, Ga., Feb. 7.—By an explosion at the plant of the Rome Municipal Gas Company, Wednesday afternoon, a portion of the building was wrecked, thousands of window panes shattered and Superintendent A. D. Watson dangerously burned and hurt.

The explosion was caused by the escape of gas which collected in a small room near the boilers. When brought in contact with fire it exploded with a dull boom, heard for miles, shaking the buildings and shattering window glass within a radius of several blocks.

Mr. Watson was at work in the plant, and the force of the explosion knocked him senseless and hurled him through the side of the wall. He is suffering from scalp wounds, burns, cuts and bruises, but will recover. Two negro employees, Will Wilson and Roy Cothran, were badly burned about their bodies.

STORM HAS SUBSIDED.

But Widespread Damage Has Been Wrought in Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 7.—The fierce storm of wind, snow, hail, sleet and rain that raged over this section of the country for twenty-four hours, finally subsided Thursday after causing widespread destruction to telephone, telegraph and trolley lines.

In this city wires and poles were carried down in all directions by the heavy sleet and high wind.

It is estimated that fully 5,000 telephones were put out of service.

A number of persons were injured by being swept from their feet by the high wind and falling upon the icy pavements.

FIVE FIREMEN INJURED.

Racine, Wis., Feb. 7.—Five firemen injured and a loss of $120,000 was the result of a fire that broke out in the club rooms of the Racine club, at Schuler Block on Main street early Thursday morning. The injured:

Captain John Diedisch, Fireman Peter Joachim, James Bruce, John Strippie, Charles J. Enaista.

All are expected to recover.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—The following changes in postmasters in fourth-class offices have been announced by the postoffice department: DeWitt, Mitchell county, B. Adler to succeed H. R. Cowan, resigned; Lovejoys Station, Clayton county, Andrew W. McVicker to succeed Isham G. Dorsey, resigned; Munnerlyn, Burke county, John W. Lewis to succeed J. C. Clark, resigned; Pine Grove, Appling county, Erasmus D. Music to succeed J. L. Johnson; Walnut Grove, Walnut county, R. A. Forrester to succeed J. Robinson, resigned.

NO TRUTH IN REPORT

British Pacific Squadron Not to Be Increased.

NO CHANGES CONTEMPLATED

Associated Press Has Been Officially Authorized to State that the British Government Has No Intention of Augmenting Fleet.

London, Feb. 7.—The Associated Press is officially authorized to declare that there is absolutely no truth in the report telegraphed from Halifax Wednesday that the British squadron in the Pacific is to be materially increased.

No changes whatever are being made or are being contemplated in the Chinese squadron, and the British government has not the slightest intention of replacing the old Pacific fleet, which formerly had its base at Esquimalt, B. C., and which is now represented by a solitary sloop if war.

MUST STAY AT MATTEAWAN.

No Immediate Move To Be Made For Harry Thaw's Release.

New York, Feb. 7.—No immediate move will be made to secure the release of Harry K. Thaw from the insane asylum at Matteawan, according to an interview credited to A. Russell Peabody.

It has been practically decided that there is no way under the law by which Thaw can be confined in a private sanitarium instead of the Matteawan institution, and his lawyers and family are said to have agreed that it would be unwise to ask for his release now.

Martin W. Littleton, who conducted Thaw's defense in court, left Wednesday for a vacation in Florida and it is possible that no move will be made in the case before his return. It is said that the physicians at the asylum will not recommend Thaw's release until they have had from sixty to ninety days in which to observe him.

L. & N. CUTS SALARIES.

All Employes Making More than $250 Per Month Suffer Decrease.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 7.—The Louisville and Nashville railroad has reduced the salaries of all employes making more than $250 per month. Those receiving $400 and over are cut 10 per cent, while those receiving more than $250 and less than $400, suffer the reduction of 5 per cent. The reductions take effect with the current month.

It is hoped by the officials of the road that no further reductions will be necessary, but this will depend upon the earnings of the road for the month of February. Business improved somewhat during January, but during December, as compared with the net earnings for December, 1906, there was a falling off of more than $600,000.

PROTEST FROM STUDENTS.

Middletown, Conn., Feb. 7.—Students at Smith college have formed a protest to students at Wesleyan against the production of an opera "The Girl and the Graduate," which is in preparation by the students of the latter institution.

The protest is based on the fact that one act in the opera is supposed to occur at Smith and the girls there object to the fact that the parts of the Smith girls are to be played by male students "clad in decollete gowns."

After a "Water Wagon" Seat.

Charleston, W. Va., Feb. 7.—A joint resolution was passed in the house at the special meeting of the state legislature Wednesday providing for an amendment to the state constitution which if adopted by the senate, will give the right to voters to decide whether or not liquor or the manufacture of liquor will be prohibited forever in the state.

KNOCK-DOWNS AND DRAG-OUTS

AND CONTESTING DELEGATIONS

Is the Result—The Convention Was Hopelessly Split Into Administration and Anti-Administration Factions, Both Sides Electing Delegates.

St. Augustine, Feb. 7.—Florida Republicans stood conspicuously in the lime-light yesterday as being the first to hold their convention to select delegates to the National convention, and it is said here that the strenuous and exciting scenes enacted yesterday are merely a forerunner of similar scenes in other Southern States, caused by the desperate effort being made by the anti-Roosevelt Republicans for control in the National convention.

The convention held yesterday will go down in history as one of the most remarkable ever held by any political party. It was really two conventions held at the same time in the same hall, the progress of business being frequently interrupted by sensational knock-down and drag-out fights.

The officeholders' faction was called to order by the chairman of the State committee and they proclaimed themselves as the regulars, and succeeded in carrying out their pre-arranged program, and strong resolutions were adopted emphatically indorsing William H. Taft for the Presidency.

Other Side's Instructed.

On the other side of the hall the contesting convention took the conservative action and chose delegates absolutely untrammeled by any instructions, they being given positive assurance by Joseph N. Stripling, who led the movement, that despite the fact that they were branded as bolters by the other convention, the delegates they named would be seated in the National convention.

The officeholders' convention adopted resolutions approving the policies of the Roosevelt administration and the conservative manner in which he has carried them out, and instructed the delegates to the National convention to support the President's policies and the candidate who is in sympathy with, and who will carry out those policies, and then proceed to name William H. Taft as such a candidate.

The anti-Taft convention adopted resolutions condemning in strong terms the attempts to influence and control, by use of Federal patronage through Governmental officeholders, the selection of delegates to the National convention in the interest of any Presidential candidate.

The Delegates Chosen.

The officeholders' convention elected as delegates to the convention J. N. Coombs, member of the National committee from Florida; Joseph E. Lee, colored, collector of internal revenue; Henry S. Chubb, receiver of the United States land office at Gainesville, and M. B. MacFarlane, collector of customs at Tampa. Four alternates were also elected.

The anti-Taft convention elected as delegates to the National convention Joseph N. Stripling, former United States attorney; J. De V. Hazzard, J. H. Dickerson and R. R. Robinson, the two latter being colored. They also elected four alternates.

The Congressional district conventions of the First and Second districts of Florida were held by each faction immediately after the adjournment of the State convention, and each of these conventions elected two delegates to the National convention and adopted the same resolutions as the State conventions of their respective factions had already adopted.

Never has such a sight been witnessed as was presented in the convention hall. The city marshal and a dozen policemen were on duty and were frequently called upon to eject unruly delegates.

The Circuit Court.

After the disposition of one case, that of J. L. Matthews vs. W. S. Howell, assumpsit, in which the court instructed the jury to bring in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $403.82 and costs, the court adjourned until Tuesday morning.

This is a special term of the court, called for the hearing of civil cases only, and it is proposed as far as possible to relieve the civil docket, which has been badly congested for the past three years.

YOUNG MOTHERS

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Mrs. M. Gilmer, of West Union, S. C., writes to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

"I was greatly run down in health, suffering from a weakness peculiar to my sex. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I was not only restored to health but am the proud mother of a fine baby girl. I wish every sick and ailing woman would give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial."

Mrs. Paul Oliver, of St. Martinville, La., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"For years I suffered from the worst form of female troubles, and the doctor said I could not get well without an operation. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to perfect health, and I have the sweetest little baby girl. I will never cease to praise Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with the worst forms. Why don't you try it?

CHIEF O'NEILL'S ENERGY.

Makes Recommendations Which Will Improve Fire Department.

Gainesville is indeed fortunate in having as the chief of its fire department such an energetic officer as E. A. O'Neill, who has rendered a most efficient service in that capacity.

Chief O'Neill, always awake to the interests of the department, at the last meeting of the City Council introduced many recommendations looking towards the improvement of the department, and which, if complied with, will place Gainesville's department on a footing with the best in the South in proportion to population.

The Gainesville fire department is already up-to-date, but the city has grown so rapidly within the past two years that Chief O'Neill considers an extension of the fire department a necessity.

The recommendations were received by the council in a friendly attitude, and that body will no doubt concede to Chief O'Neill's suggestions.

The Masquerade Ball.

The masquerade ball given at the Seminary hall last night under the direction of Mrs. T. W. Pitts for the benefit of the hospital was well attended, and the young folks en masque thoroughly enjoyed the occasion, tripping the light fantistic toe until a late hour.

Two prizes were awarded. One a handsome cake for the most graceful couple, the other a basket of fruit for the most ridiculous. The names will be published tomorrow.

WANTS EARLY DATE.

President Fugate Thinks Farmers' Institute Would be Better Success.

J. E. Fugate of Alachua, county president of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union, was in the city Friday.

Mr. Fugate, who is very enthusiastic along the lines of anything which will tend to benefit the farmers, came for the purpose of attending the last day's session of the Farmers' Institute, and was greatly disappointed to learn that the institute closed Thursday evening.

"We all realize that this institute is a great thing for the farmers and stockmen," remarked Mr. Fugate, "as we who hear the lectures of distinguished men who are well posted are benefited. I do feel, however, that if the meeting was held in November or December of each year it would be much more successful, as at that season the farmers would have a better opportunity of attending. The farmers now are busy making their stands for the next crop, and the majority of them have not the time to attend, however badly they might want to do so."

A DISAPPOINTED CROWD.

Many Came from Country to Hear Speech Governor Didn't Make.

It was a disappointed gathering at the Tabernacle Thursday night, when it was announced that Governor N. B. Broward, who was down on the program of the Farmers' Institute for an address on that occasion, had not arrived.

Wednesday, Mayor W. R. Thomas received a telegram from the Governor to the effect that he could be depended upon, and arrangements were made accordingly. But Thursday afternoon late the mayor received another message expressing regrets at the Governor's inability to be present on account of illness.

Quite a number came from the country to hear this address, and were sorely disappointed. However, the evening was passed in an interesting and profitable manner, an instructive address on soils having been delivered by Prof. A. W. Blair, of the Experimental Station.

A FATAL TRAGEDY AT HIGH SPRINGS

J. T. Chester Shot and Killed by Step-Brother, W. H. Temple.

TOWN WAS GREATLY EXCITED

Both Men Well Known and Prominent. Tragedy Occurred at Depot Restaurant, of Which the Murdered Man Was the Proprietor.

High Springs was the scene of a shocking tragedy about 9:30 o'clock Friday morning, as the result of which J. T. Chester lost his life, and W. H. Temple, his step-brother who did the deadly work, is now behind the bars of the Alachua county jail upon a charge of murder.

The tragedy, occurring in the middle of the forenoon, and at the door of the restaurant in the Atlantic Coast Line depot at that place, created a great deal of excitement, and almost before the smoke had cleared away from the discharge of the revolver, a large crowd congregated. Excitement ran high for a time, as the prostrate body of the dead man lay stretched upon the floor in a pool of his own life blood, and the slayer stood bleeding from the effects of a self-inflicted bullet wound and knife wounds, alleged to have been inflicted by the dead man.

Mr. Chester was the proprietor of the railroad restaurant at High Springs. Rumors are conflicting, but it was reported here that Chester and Temple formerly owned the business as partners. Recently Chester purchased the interest of Temple, and it is understood that the altercation was brought about in an effort to effect a settlement of financial differences between the men. Those coming from High Springs reported that Temple, on Monday afternoon, went to Chester's place of business for the purpose of making a settlement. Evidently this was unsatisfactory, as Temple returned Tuesday morning, when the trouble occurred.

From the best information obtainable from the scene, it appears that Temple suddenly clutched Chester, drew his pistol, and began firing, the contents of all five chambers of the gun being discharged. One of the bullets missed its mark and pierced Temple's hand, causing it to bleed freely. He was also bleeding from the knife wounds alleged to have been made by Chester, whom it is claimed approached Temple with an open knife.

Immediately after the tragedy Sheriff Fennell was notified, and left on the 11:30 train, returning with his prisoner in the afternoon. He took the prisoner immediately to jail, and few had an opportunity of seeing him.

Temple has by no means an ugly countenance. He is a young man of possibly twenty-eight, low and stout, and appears quite muscular. He was neatly dressed, and wore a derby hat. As he stepped from the train it was noticed that the left shirt sleeve was partially rolled, partly disclosing the ugly wounds and a bloody sleeve.

Both men are said to be popular in High Springs, and the tragedy is greatly deplored by the people of that town.

High Springs Report.

High Springs, Feb. 7.—A shocking tragedy occurred here this morning at the A. C. L. passenger depot. James T. Chester, proprietor of the restaurant at the depot, was killed by his step-brother, W. H. Temple.

The difficulty arose over the fact that Mr. Temple was arranging to start a restaurant in opposition to Mr. Chester.

It is understood that Mr. Chester drew a knife, as Mr. Temple is slightly cut. Both men were highly respected citizens, and the occurence is deeply deplored by everyone.

THE VALUE OF PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE

Personal knowledge is the winning factor in the culminating contests of this competitive age and when of ample character it places its fortunate possessor in the front ranks of

The Well Informed of the World.

A vast fund of personal knowledge is really essential to the achievement of the highest excellence in any field of human effort.

A Knowledge of Forms, Knowledge of Functions and Knowledge of Products are all of the utmost value and in questions of life and health when a true and wholesome remedy is desired it should be remembered that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., is an ethical product which has met with the approval of the most eminent physicians and gives universal satisfaction, because it is a remedy of Known Quality, Known Excellence and Known Component Parts and has won the valuable patronage of millions of the Well Informed of the world, who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual use that it is the first and best of family laxatives, for which no extravagant or unreasonable claims are made.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent family laxative. As its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well Informed of the world to be the best we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of—Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects, always note, when purchasing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, whether you call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

WE REPEAT

We repeat that if a poor watch is a poor investment a good watch is a good one. It is as two and two. We have never carried the cheap, bargain counter watches, not because of any "foolish" reasons, but for the very good reason that we know there is no money in them. We have a reputation to sustain and every one we would sell would be the making of one certain enemy and that one would make many more—the result would do us more harm than ten times the profit on the watch. We make a most reasonable profit on good, standard watches and every purchaser is a life-long advertisement. Don't you think we have it figured out about right? From $10 up.

THE INSTALMENT PLAN

Some have criticised the instalment business as a menace to our people. Such indeed it may become when families are loaded up with diamonds, books and other articles of more or less a luxurious nature, when the weekly or monthly payments become a burden and finally the family sense of honor is crushed beneath the load. But the good the instalment business does far outweighs the bad. It is a pleasant contemplation for us to think of the thousands of homes we have had a hand in the establishing. It is pleasant to think that in these cases we have worked hand in hand with Cupid, and that but for the instalment business as we have conducted it, many a man would have continued to live in a hall-bedroom, and many a pretty maid to have wasted the beauty of her youth in waiting—waiting for the man of her choice to make his fortune.

NO FUNDS IN HAND.

The following extract from the minutes of the Board of Commissioners of State Institutions of a meeting held January 17th, are published for the benefit of those interested:

"Whereas, there are no funds in the State Treasury available for the payment of sums aggregating $47,047.50, apportioned by the State Board of Education under the appropriation made by Chapter 5381, Acts of 1905, which amounts were due to be paid after the close of the school year ending June 30, 1907;

"It is ordered that the following statement be placed upon the records of this board for the information of interested parties:

"The Legislature of 1905, by Chapter 5382, Laws of Florida, approved May 20, 1905, appropriated $50,000 for each of the school years ending June 30, 1906, and June 30, 1907, to aid and encourage the establishment of public high schools and rural graded schools, payments being due after the close of each of such school years. These appropriations have been paid as provided by law.

"The same Legislature, by Chapter 5383, Laws of Florida, appropriated $25,000 for each of the school years ending June 30, 1906, and June 30, 1907, for the purpose of aiding and encouraging common schools of this State which do not receive State aid under the existing laws except the one-mill State school tax. These appropriations, too, have been paid as provided by law.

"The same Legislature, by Chapter 5381, Laws of Florida, appropriated $50,000 for each of the school years ending June 30, 1906 and June 30, 1907, payable after the close of said respective school years, for State aid to public schools based on average daily attendance therein, as provided in the act. The appropriation made by this act for the year ending June 30, 1906, was paid promptly when it became due.

"The appropriation made by said Chapter 5381 for the school year ending June 30, 1907, payable after the close of such school year, was officially apportioned on November 5, 1907, in the aggregate sum of $47,047.50. Warrants to cover the amounts thus apportioned have not been issued because there have at no time since the date of such apportionment been funds in the treasury available for such purpose.

"Each and every appropriation above mentioned was directed by the Legislature to be paid from the General Revenue Fund of the State Treasury. From the General Revenue Fund are paid all the expenses of the State Government, including all jurors and witnesses before the grand juries, the expenses of assessing and collecting all the revenue of the State for all funds, the salaries of all executive, judicial and military officers of the State, and all clerks and employes of the State, the interest on the bonded debt of the State, the expenses of the Legislature, the expenses of the Hospital for the Insane, the costs of arrests of fugitives from justice, all printing, all appropriations made by the Legislature for schools and colleges, and all other appropriations made by the Legislature unless otherwise specifically provided.

"The Legislature of 1907, by Chapter 5603, approved June 4, 1907, provided that appropriations made for school purposes should be payable from the first funds available in the general revenue fund of the treasury after the payment of current expenses of the State, the principal heads of which are enumerated above.

"The disbursements from the general revenue fund under appropriations made by the Legislature have been very large. The receipts in said fund from the sources provided by law have not, up to this time, been sufficient, over and above enumerated preferred payments, to meet the special and extraordinary appropriations made by the Legislature.

"This board has no means of ascertaining when the receipts in the general revenue fund will be sufficient to enable the State to pay the moneys appropriated for the school year ending June 30, 1907, by Chapter 5381 aforesaid. The board is advised of the peculiar conditions which demand the earliest practicable distribution of this appropriation, and realizes its duty to secure such distribution at the earliest possible date; yet, the board, realizing that there are numerous persons materially interested in this matter, deems it proper, for their information, to make this statement of the facts, and to state that, until receipts in the general revenue fund are larger in proportion to disbursements made in pursuance of appropriations by the Legislature, this board can give no assurance as to when there will be funds in the treasury available to pay the appropriation made by Chapter 5381, Acts of 1905.

"The money stringency of the past six months is the prime excuse of the very slow collection of taxes, and the condition of the treasury's general revenue fund is dependent upon the future collection of the levy of 1907, and for these reasons the board cannot say when the money will be available."

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

The board of county commissioners of St. Johns county have taken action looking to extensively improving the public road to Jacksonville—that is, as far as the border line of the county.

M. W. Ulmer of Largo had an acre in cane from which he made 1,188 gallons of thick cane syrup, saving 700 stalks for seed. Mr. Ulmer stated that it cost him 15 cents a gallon to produce the syrup, and figures that the acre netted him over $500.

It is reported that owing to the lack of work in the factories in Key West, there is much destitution among the poorer classes. The matter has been referred to the city council and county commissioners with the request that they render immediate aid.

Key West keeps her large elevated standpipe, filled with water for fire purposes for the small sum of $25 per month. The naval station at that point contracted to furnish the city with 1,000,000 gallons of salt water for $50 and during the month of January the city used 528,326 gallons.

It is estimated that it will take five hundred cars to carry the coming spring crop from the trucking farms about Wauchula, to market, and that the crop will net the growers not less than $200,000. Talk about Florida being a poor country; there is no section on earth that can beat her in anything she undertakes.—Tampa Times.

Norman Wolff, nine years of age, died suddenly Wednesday at her home in Pensacola of heart disease. The child at noon Wednesday was in the best of health and spirits; and even up to a half-hour of her death did not complain. Suddenly she had a severe attack of heart trouble, of which it was not known that she was a sufferer, and died within five minutes.

At the regular meeting of the board of county commissioners of Duval county the prohibitionists presented their petition calling for a "wet" or "dry" election in that county. The prohibition leaders claim that the petition contains the names of 2,500 registered voters, while, under the law requiring one-fourth of the registered voters to sign the petition, but 2,225 names were required.

Sanford was the scene of a very bold robbery Monday at the depot. A gentleman on his way South had his pocketbook snatched from him, the purse containing about four hundred dollars. After the pickpocket secured the purse he ran through the train and jumped off, making his escape through the crowd. His victim was so excited that he only said, "Where is he?" in place of giving the alarm that he had been robbed. A great many saw the man running but thought nothing of it, as they supposed he was a passenger in a hurry.

J. A. Strickland of Bonifay, a well-known planter, was shot and perhaps mortally wounded Wednesday night as he was seated by a window reading. His twelve-year-old son, Wallace, has been arrested and admitted that he shot his father. He further says that he fired the shot at the instance and persuasion of his mother, who had promised that if he would kill his father she would give him a horse and buggy. Wednesday night he crept from the house at an early hour and, with his father's gun, waited outside in the darkness until the father took a seat by a window, his usual seat at night, and began reading a paper. Then he fired both barrels of a shotgun. A portion of the charge took effect in the man's head.

Ladies who have thin hair and whose hair is falling out, can prevent the hair falling out, and thicken the growth, with Newbro's "Herpicide." Ballard's Snow Liniment is praised for the good it does. A sure cure for rheumatism and all pains. Wright W. Loving, Grand Junction, Colo., writes: "I used Ballard's Snow Liniment last winter for rheumatism and can recommend it as the best Liniment on the market. What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heartburn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver with indigestion, or dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at its formula will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of the following native American forest plants, viz., Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark, Queen's root, Bloodroot, and Mandrake root.

The following leading medical authorities, among a host of others, extol the foregoing roots for the cure of just such ailments as the above symptoms indicate: Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Med. College, Phila.; Prof. H. C. Wood, M. D., of Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. THE NEWS FROM SANTA FE.

Heavy Movement of Cotton—Other Notes of General Interest.

Santa Fe, Feb. 7.—The death of Mrs. Nancy Willis, which occurred at the home of S. T. Burnett, near La-Crosse, on the morning of the 5th, removes one of the oldest persons in this community and probably the oldest in the county. Mrs. Willis did not know her age, but her relatives here claim her to be 100 years old, or near that. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. L. Varnadoe, who is nearly seventy-five years old, and several grand and great-grandchildren. She died at the home of her grand-daughter. Grandma Willis' husband died some twenty years ago. He was said to be 114 years old when he died.

The farmers let loose eight solid cars loaded with cotton from this place this week. There will be about seven hundred bales of the 1907 crop shipped from this station, when it is all shipped. Some are holding yet, as the price is very unsatisfactory. Santa Fe is entitled to be called one of the cotton centers.

The time has passed when odor of backbone and spareribs was borne on every passing breeze, and mankind at large was luxurating in the glorious of a copious sausage shower.

The many friends of Prof. F. H. Ellis are proud to know that he has been recommended to the Governor for appointment as member of the school board to serve the vacancy of J. F. Futch, resigned. No better appointment could be made. Prof. Ellis is one of Alachua county's most experienced teachers, and a young man of pleasing address, and is very popular with those that knew him. His appointment will be greeted with universal favor here.

The farmers are going with renewed energy in the preparation of their lands for a large crop for 1908. Labor is more plentiful than last year, caused we suppose by the silver lining of the dark financial clouds that have been hanging over the country.

THE IMMIGRATION CONVENTION.

Representative Body Will Convene in Tampa on February 12.

Tampa, Feb. 7.—Arrangements for the great immigration convention to be held in this city, beginning February 12, have reached a point where the assurance can be positively given that it will be the most notable gathering of the kind ever held in the Southern States.

The convention will meet at 11 a. m., February 12, at the Tampa Bay Casino, and will be called to order by President T. J. L. Brown, of the chamber of commerce. Mr. Brown will introduce Mr. Edward R. Gunby, who will represent the mayor of the city government in extending Tampa's welcome to the assembled delegates. Governor Broward of Florida will welcome the convention on behalf of the State of Florida and will make a notable address, dealing with the investigations of the immigration question which he has personally conducted. The Spanish Ambassador to the United States, Senor Rafael Penaly Millet, will then be introduced and will speak on the subject from an international standpoint.

The chamber of commerce will then deliver over the convention to the delegates, and they will proceed to form a permanent organization, outlining the program for the remainder of the session.

An interesting delegate to the convention will be Mr. F. J. O'Hara of Jacksonville, who has been tried several times on charges of peonage brought against him by the representatives of the Department of Justice at Washington, and who was acquitted on each and every charge. Mr. O'Hara will probably have something interesting to say to the convention on peonage agitation.

Boards of trade and chambers of commerce throughout the South have appointed delegates, the New Orleans Progressive Union taking the lead with a list of ten prominent men of that city. Augusta, Ga., will have one of the largest delegations at the meeting. While it cannot be positively stated, it is believed that Governor Johnson of Minnesota will be present, and that he will consent to deliver an address.

THE NEWS FROM NATIONAL CAPITAL

Some Political Prognostications About Presidential Candidates.

THE FIELD AS AGAINST TAFT

The Favorite Sons Will Endeavor to Combine Against the Secretary of War and Prevent His Nomination. Mr. Bryan Monopolizes News.

Special Correspondence The Daily Sun.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—Congress has virtually done nothing but talk for the past week, which means that the leaders intend to standpat, pass the appropriation bills and go home to look after their fences. It may be of interest, therefore, to investigate what is the present condition and the probable outcome of the Republican factional fight. As far as the nomination for President is concerned, it is Taft against the field, with Taft apparently well in the lead at this writing. The favorite sons control their own States with the following delegates:

Hughes—New York	78
Cannon—Illinois	54
Fairbanks—Indiana	30
LaFollette—Wisconsin	26
Total	286

As there are 992 delegates to the Republican National Convention, it will require 497 for a majority and the anti-Taft managers will need 211 more votes than those of the States above enumerated to nominate some other candidate.

Some of these favorite sons will get all or some of the delegates from other States, but there is nothing certain about it yet. United States Senator Murray Crane of Massachusetts is the manager of the Knox boom and is credited with having induced Governor Hughes to announce himself as a candidate, so as to prevent President Roosevelt from controlling the delegates from New York. Whether Senator Crane can control the delegates from his own State is a problem not yet settled. Senator Lodge is master of the Massachusetts Republican machine, and although Senator Crane is more popular with the voters the machine is perhaps too powerful to be defeated. So Massachusetts is a doubtful quantity just yet.

Since the Churchill recommendation for a Federal office in New Hampshire was nominated by President Roosevelt and was turned down by the Senate at the instance of the Senators from New Hampshire there is a fight for delegates, and whether the Senators will control or the Churchill faction cannot be stated at this writing. If the Senators win the delegates will support Knox or Hughes, probably the latter for the first few ballots.

There is a factional fight raging in Iowa between the Allison and Cummins factions, with a complication of former Secretary Shaw attempting to be a favorite son, but his late attempt to break into the ranks of the frenzied financiers of Wall Street will probably act as a stopper on his political ambition.

West Virginia will be likely to send delegates controlled by Senator Elkins and opposed to Taft, who will be for Knox when the balloting becomes really interesting.

The balance of power between the Roosevelt-Taft and the Knox-Hughes factions will be in the hands of the delegates from the Southern States. If they split up their votes Taft may be defeated, but if the administration controls the great majority of them the opposition will win. The situation in the South differs from former occasions, for the Roosevelt plan of virtually eliminating the negro vote and turning over all the patronage to a few selected lily-whites has angered the darkey leaders. That feeling has been made more bitter by the Brownsville affair, which will also have its effect in some Northern States where the negroes are numerous. This peculiar state of affairs may lead to some contesting delegations from Southern States and the fight be carried into the convention.

There is a chance for unparalleled corruption to play its part in the Republican Convention, for delegates from the Southern States have usually been in politics "for what there was in it," with the Federal offices counting as so much extra boodle to the winners.

The Democratic news of the past week has been somewhat monopolized by Mr. Bryan, who came to the Capital last Saturday to attend the Gridiron banquet, and has remained here until the middle of the past week consulting with his friends about how to overcome the obstacles that are in his path to attain his ambition. The Press Bureau maintained here in the interest of Mr. Bryan's candidacy was almost in a dissoluble condition when the poll of the standing of the Democratic members of Congress was published. They could not believe that over one-third of the Congressmen were willing to go on record as being opposed to Mr. Bryan's nomination. It was therefore decided to have those friendly to Mr. Bryan interview the members and see if such a large defection really existed. The result was about the same, except that a larger number refused to go on record, and the poll showed that only a majority of the Democratic Congressmen representing the Western and Southwestern States were favorable to the nomination of Mr. Bryan. This opposition is emphasized by the fact that a large majority of the Democratic members of Congress, although not willing to be quoted, will privately assure any Democratic friend who talks with them that although they do not wish to oppose Mr. Bryan, yet they much fear he cannot be elected, and would prefer to see someone nominated who would better unite the party in New York and other doubtful States. It is conceded by Hon. Daniel Campau of Detroit, who has been selected by Mr. Bryan to manage his campaign, if he is nominated, that it is absolutely necessary for the Democrats to carry the State of New York to insure success. He realizes the fact that Mr. Bryan has been defeated in that State by a very large majority at each former election, and therefore proposes that Mr. Chanler, the present Lieutenant-Governor, shall be nominated for Vice-President because he has shown his ability to carry the State. But much wiser politicians than Mr. Campau has proved himself to be—for under his political management the Democratic party of his own State, Michigan, has become so attenuated that there is apparently no organization of the party there, for there is no Democratic member of the State Senate, and but five members of the Lower House of the State Legislature, and no Democratic member of the present Congress—declare that even the undoubted strength of Mr. Chanler would not be able to pull Mr. Bryan through in New York. Without New York it is almost impossible to figure out a Democratic victory.

All the Gold IN GEORGIA Could not Buy-

Roding, Ga. August 27, 1906.
Messrs. E. C. DeWITT & Co.,
Chicago, Ills.

Gentlemen:—
In 1897 I had a disease of the stomach and bowels. Some physicians told me it was Dyspepsia, some Consumption of the Lungs, others said consumption of the Bowels. One physician said I would not live until Spring, and for four long years I existed on a little boiled milk, soda biscuits, doctors' prescriptions and Dyspepsia remedies that flooded the market. I could not digest anything I ate, and in the Spring 1902 I picked up one of your Almanacs as a poor emaciated Dyspepsia wreck will grasp at anything, and that Almanac happened to be my life saver. I bought a fifty cent bottle of KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE and the benefit I received from that bottle ALL THE GOLD IN GEORGIA COULD NOT BUY. I kept on taking it and in two months I went back to my work, as a machinist, and in three months I was well and hearty. I still use a little occasionally as I find it a fine blood purifier and a good tonic
May you live long and prosper.
Yours very truly,

Whitefly Control—Spraying With Fungus Spores

By E. W. Berger of Florida Agricultural Experiment Station.

It is now generally well known among the citrus growers of this State that there are several fungi which live parasitically upon the immature stages (the larvae and pupae) of the whitefly (Aleyrodes citri), and that, as these fungi become well established in a grove infested by whiteflies, they destroy these insects by the million. The best known of these fungi are the Red Fungus, the Yellow Fungus, and the Brown Fungus. Three others, not so well known, are the Red-headed Scale Fungus, the White-fringe Fungus, and the Cinnamon Fungus. The last two have only recently been described by Prof. H. S. Fawcett of this Station, in Press Bulletins 68 and 76 respectively; and their discovery being relatively recent we are not so well prepared to make recommendations, either as to their efficiency in reducing the whitefly, or as to the best methods for introducing them. The Red-headed Scale Fungus, so efficient in reducing scale insects in Florida, has only rarely been observed upon any of the young stages of the whitefly, and so will receive no further mention here.

PREPARATION OF SPORE-CONTAINING LIQUID.

The following description of the spore-spraying method for introducing the fungi is based mainly upon experiments with the Red and the Yellow Fungi, and the method was apparently first successfully employed by the writer. It is considered the preferable method, and is probably applicable to all the fungi mentioned, excepting perhaps the Brown Fungus. Experiments so far indicate that this method can be employed during any month of the year, although a better infection with fungus may generally be expected during the warmer months. The spores or germs (which take the place of seeds in fungi) are washed out of the fungus by means of water. Use about forty of the bright red or bright yellow pustules of the fungus to a pint of water. This will be about the same as one or two fungus-bearing leaves to a quart of water. More fungus may be used, but the amount indicated has been found to give good results. Soak and wash the fungus (leaves and all) for ten or fifteen minutes, and strain through cheese-cloth or fine wire gauze.

SPRAYING AND SPRAYERS.

Spray the mixture of spores and water on the under surface of the whitefly-infested leaves. Look well to the newer growth, and if the larvae and pupae, or the adult flies, or all three, are abundant there, spray the parts thoroughly. If the supply of seed-fungus is limited, spray only the worst infested twigs and branches, for the fungus will infect some of the larvae there, and the adults maturing from those not infected, together with other adults migrating there, will carry the fungus spores to other parts of the tree and to other trees. Use a new spraying outfit, preferably one of the Compressed Air Sprayer type (3 or 4 gallons capacity), with little or no copper or brass about it. Do not use an outfit previously used for spraying Bordeaux or other strong fungicide, since the small amount of fungicide left in the machine may kill the spores. An old spraying outfit which has been previously used only for soap solutions or oil emulsions may be employed, but it should be well washed out with water. A larger spraying machine mounted on a barrel may be used when many acres of trees are to be sprayed, and when an abundance of fungus is available. Use a nozzle producing a very fine spray, and thoroughly wet the leaves just to the dripping point. It requires about three weeks for the Red and Yellow Fungi to make a visible growth.

A modification of the spore-spraying method, recently brought to the writer's attention, consists in flirting the liquid against the under surface of the leaves by means of a tin cup. A wisp-broom may also be employed, or a bunch of small twigs dipped into the liquid. It will not be necessary to strain the liquid when it is intended to be applied in this manner.

THE BROWN FUNGUS.

The spraying method is probably not generally applicable for introducing the Brown Fungus, of which the spores are at present unknown. This fungus has, however, been well started several times by using this method. If it is desired to employ the spraying method for introducing the Brown Fungus, it is advised to scour the fungus off the leaves by means of a little sand and water, using the resulting mixture of fungus particles and water as a spray. Strain the liquid if necessary. Use about the same relative quantities of fungus and water as recommended for the Red and Yellow Fungi.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

J. B. Brooks, manager of the Gainesville Bottling Works, has installed a telephone of the Southern Bell system, and, as will be noted by change in his advertisement, the factory now has both the East Florida and Bell phones. The number of the Southern Bell phone is 359.

Attention is called to the change of advertisement of The Gainesville National Bank, which appears elsewhere this issue. This bank is one of the strongest, as well as one of the most conservatively managed institutions of the kind in the State, and the business is growing daily.

C. H. Patterson of Baltimore, one of the oldest traveling men in the state in point of service, is in the city for two or three days. Mr. Patterson has been a regular visitor to Gainesville for many years, and says it feels like home to him. He makes his headquarters here several days, working the outlying territory from here.

Among the visitors to this city is Rev. Hugh Morris, formerly of Waldo, but now pastor of the Oak Lawn Presbyterian church, Philadelphia. Dr. Morris, notwithstanding that he is quite a young man, has made an excellent record as a minister and preacher, and is appreciated by his friends. While here he is the guest of his brother, Geo. P. Morris.

The editor of The Memphis (Tenn.) Times writes: "In my opinion Foley's Honey and Tar is the best remedy for coughs, colds and lung trouble, and to my own personal knowledge Foley's Honey and Tar has accomplished many permanent cures that have been little short of marvelous." Miss Jessie Scarborough, a popular young lady of Dothan, Ala., who has been here for the past few days on a visit to Mrs. L. N. Hansell, has gone to Clearwater, where she will be the guest of friends before returning to her Alabama home. By her clever, entertaining manner, Miss Scarborough has made many friends among the young people here, all of whom will appreciate another visit.

Attention is called to the advertisement of The White House, James Van Allen, proprietor, which appears elsewhere in this issue. This elegant new hotel, which is located on East Main street N., one of the handsomest thoroughfares in the city, is just far enough removed from the business center to make the location a most desirable one. It is surrounded by beautiful lawns and fine homes, and in fact is an ideal resort for the traveling public. The house is also up-to-date in every way, the rooms neat and airy, the cuisine excellent, and the service unexcelled. Mr. Van Allen is doing for himself and his hotel a reputation throughout the entire State which is bound to prove of great benefit not only to the hotel, but the city as well.

PANIC IN SCHOOLROOM.

Big Baboon Caused Consternation Among Pupils at Lunch Hour.

Ocean Park, Cal., Feb. 7.—Mark Howlett, 13 years old, and a pupil in the Ocean Park school, was bitten in the face, the back of the neck and on the legs Wednesday by a large African baboon which escaped from its cage at the home of George B. McClelland and broke into the lunch room of the school, causing panic and confusion.

Another baboon which escaped at the same time, raced around the school yard and chased the children, who took refuge in the school house and other buildings.

Young Howlett5s wounds are regarded as serious. The animals were attracted to the building by the lunches of the children, upon which they feasted before being re-captured by McClelland and others who came to assist him.
